

BODEGAS ALVEAR

Founded in 1729, Bodegas Alvear is one of the most prestigious and oldest family run wineries in the world. Focused on producing the finest wines in Andalucía from the Pedro Ximenez grape the current 8th generation of the family upholds the tradition established by Diego Alvear y Escalera several centuries ago.

Montilla Moriles

Varietal

100% Pedro Ximénez

Alvear Fino is aged in a biological way under a clear layer that the yeast creates on top of the wine, known as the velo de flor, which prevents the wine from oxidation and gives it a characteristic aroma and flavor. Fino does not need to be fortified as it reaches the 15°C alcohol through the fermentation with the Pedro Ximénez must.
