Winery and Vineyards

"Wine is a living product, son of the place, of the season and of culture too, it's the perfect synthesis between man and nature, man and a single place, it's the chance to transform limitations in values, to know a place towards knowledge and respect of nature..."

Giannicola Di Carlo

Awards

"One of the best wines ever made in Italy, that really modifies reference points in the Italian peninsula, considerably relocating its landmarks in Abruzzo..."

Luciano Di Lello - Gambero Rosso

An organic company

Agriverde wines divulge the culture of "terroir" melting the concepts of Climate, Geology, Topography and Soil. The recovery of natural yeasts, going away from the standards of aromatic yeasts, gives to our wines a taste intimately tied to the territory, restoring the centrality of the natural element and of the features of the belonging "terroir".

2013 Montepulciano d'Abruzzo 100% DOC

From vines grown at 250 meters above sea-level with a south/south-eastern exposure. Raised entirely in stainless steel to retain the freshness of the fruit. The color of the wine is ruby red with violet hints. Aromas of herbs and red berries. Medium-bodied with an intense, harmonious finish.
