

The Domaine Juliette Avril Estate is a family-run wine estate and its roots run long and deep. As first Consuls of Châteauneuf-du-Pape, the Avril family has cultivated centuries of winegrowing and Provençal tradition.

2015 Châteauneuf-du-Pape Blanc

List: $350.95 Sale: $280

Blend: Grenache, Roussanne, Clairette, Bourboulenc

Conservation: 8 years

Nose: Complex with anise, carrying over towards seashore scents.

Taste: The anise goes towards fennel and delicate citrus notes. Full-bodied wine with vivacity and minerality.

2016 Cuvée Maily's Cairanne Red

List: $159.95 Sale: $120

Blend: Grenache, Syrah, Mourvedre

Conservation: 5 years

Nose: Delicately spicy, slightly peppery but incisive, intermixed with notes of dried meats and herbs de Provence.

Taste: Silky tannins and a contrasting acidity on the palate. Sharp character of red fruit flavors. The finish is offset by slightly overripe blackberry sweetness.

2015 Châteauneuf-du-Pape Rouge

91 Points – Wine Spectator

List: $314.95 Sale: $252

Blend: Grenache, Syrah, Mourvedre

Conservation: 10-15 years

Nose: Complex and reminiscent of wild cherry, toast, and dried orange peel with smoky background nuances.

Taste: Undertones of minty and peppery freshness with nutmeg. Delicate flavors of perfectly ripened red fruit and silky tannins lead to a long finish.
