

Domaine de Gry-Sablon

The Morel family has been making wine in the heart of the Beaujolais-Villages appellation for five generations. The estate is in the forefront of quality production in the appellation. Vines range from 45-71 years old and are primarily located on granitic slopes. The end result is a really attractive set of deep colored, fleshy wines with lush berry and cherry fruit flavors, floral hints, delightful minerality, and fresh acidity.
