

SUMMER 2018

Iron Horse is one of Sonoma County's most beautiful, independent, family owned estate wineries located in cool, foggy Green Valley. In the arena of Sparkling Wines, Iron Horse stands at the top. The wines have been served at the White House for the past five consecutive presidential administrations, beginning with the historic Reagan-Gorbachev Summit Meetings, which led to the end of the Cold War.

2013 Wedding Cuvee

94 Points – Wine Enthusiast

“Exuberant in mousse, this wine is luxurious and rich, the perfect quaff for any occasion. Made from 75% Pinot Noir and 25% Chardonnay, and aged for three years, it's bright in bolts of green apple and strawberry.”

Appellation: Green Valley of Russian River Valley

Blend: 75% Pinot Noir, 25% Chardonnay

Alcohol: 13.5%

This is Iron Horse's most romantic bubbly and described as dangerously, deliciously easy to drink, fruit forward, dry and elegant with gorgeous tiny bubbles and a remarkably long finish.

List: $454.95

Sale: $363.96
