

MIRABEAU

EN PROVENCE

In August 2009, after twenty years in the corporate world, the Cronk family, Stephen, Jeany and their three young children, relocated from London to a small village in France to follow their dream of quiet country living, more family time together, and crafting fine local wines that could grow to be regarded as one of the very best from the region. They started in Cotignac, in the heart of Provence and spent a year finding the best vineyards to work with and putting together a highly experienced winemaking team. The family launched Mirabeau wines in 2010 and dedicated the past seven years to slowly growing the business and building strong relationships with their customers. Today, Mirabeau is sold in more than 50 markets and the collection of rosés has earned acclaim from some of the world's toughest wine critics.
