List: $109.95 Sale: $87.96

D.O.C Rioja

Varietal: 100% Graciano

Aging: N/A

A 100% Graciano rose wine, one of the rarest from Spain. Graciano is a late ripening variety with a particularly long vegetative cycle so it cannot fully ripen in Rioja Alta and Alavesa, therefore, most vineyards source their Graciano from Rioja Baja. Ordoñez discovered the quality of vineyards and Graciano in Rioja Baja, and partnered with Bodegas Ilurce to produce a 100% Graciano rosé wine, one of the rarest from Spain.

D.O.C. Rioja

Varietal: 100% Graciano

Aging: 6 months in third use French oak Bordeaux and Burgundy barrels sur lie with battonage

Jorge Ordoñez discovered the quality of vineyards and Graciano in Rioja Baja and partnered with Bodegas Ilurce to produce a 100% Graciano, which is very rare. Graciano is a varietal that thrives in Rioja Baja due to the hotter climate and Rio Madre is the result of the efforts of Ordoñez and Bodegas Ilurce to produce a 100% Graciano wine from D.O.C. Rioja, mostly known for its role in adding complexity to the wines of Rioja Alta and Alavesa.

2014 Rio Madre Tempranillo
List: $119.95 Sale: $95.96

90 Points – Stephen Tanzer's IWC
D.O.C. Rioja

Varietal: 100% Tempranillo

Aging: 6 months in third use French oak Bordeaux and Burgundy barrels sur lie with battonage

After succeeding with Rio Madre Graciano, Ordoñez and Bodegas Ilurce strove to produce a 100% Tempranillo wine from Rioja Baja. Due to the unique soils and climate, Tempranillo from Rioja Baja produces a wine with a different profile and this is showcased in Rio Madre Tempranillo.
