

FATTORIA
RODÁNO

Fattoria di Rodano is located in the heart of the Chianti Classico in the famed region of Castellina in Chianti. The original farm dates back to the Middle Ages, and sits on the historic "Via Franchigena" used by pilgrims to travel from northern Europe to Rome. It became a wine-producing property in the sixteenth century. The winery has been in the Pozzesi family for three generations, since 1958. Vittorio Pozzesi, who owned the winery until his passing in 2012, was actually the President of the Chianti Classico Consortium. His son, Enrico now is the managing partner of the winery and is the winemaker.
