

TRENTADUE WINERY

In 1959, Leo and Evelyn Trentadue decided to pull their Santa Clara County roots and head north. They settled on a ranch with 150 acres of plum trees and 60 acres of Zinfandel, Petite Sirah and Carignan vines. Today, with those original vines still producing excellent fruit, three generations of the Trentadue family work together to create the best wines possible from their 225 acre Alexander Valley Estate.
