

villa M

Villa M wines, as they are known today, was a project that began with the purchase of Moscato grapes from the beautiful Asti hills of Piemonte by Gianni Gagliardo in 1972. Initially with the famous hang tag label, the wine has always had a very strong following with an international clientele. Today, Gianni's sons Stefano and Alberto Gagliardo, in partnership with a small producer outside of Asti, control all facets of the operation and produce three light sparkling wines from grapes of the Asti and Acqui area.
